F. S. MILLINGTON, Agent Dementia Co.
At the time I commenced taking Ellixir Vitæ, I had been bed-ridden for two long years, I was suffering with a very bad form of catarrh of the bladder and also with the piles. I found relief in the second bottle of Ellixir and after taking six bottles I found myself recovering rapidly, so much so in fact, that I am now able to walk. My recovery I ascribe to the use of the Ellixir of Life and recommend it in cases similar to mine. 11 J. R. BAKOS.

The best is the cheapest. Down's Ellixir ing relatives in the state of Iowa.

The Allegan Journal and Tribune, with Shall we have republican township officers in this township during the coming year?

The matter depends wholly on the republican voters. There are enough of them to accomplish this result if they attend the primaries, put up a strong ticket and then give it a hearty support.

We have printed 11,000 years and the same number of days on the jail appropriation question. County Clerk Heath will distribute them to the several townships of the will relieve it of the odium and disgrace of having the worst jail in Michigan.

band, J. B. Smith, in that company. The company evidently lives up to its obligations.

Taylor, a former resident of that vicinity, was frozen to death during a blizzard, near Wapeton, Dak., on the 18th of February last. His body was found within twenty yards of a dwelling which, probably, he was trying to reach. We prefer to be excused William Ellis, who lives on the valley road was married last December, to Miss Anna Messenger. Within a few days after his marriage he began to show indications of insanity, and has been continually growing worse. Last week Wednesday, he tried to commit suicide by hanging himself with a log chain. His father discovered him just in time to prevent the consummation of the act. He is now so completely insane that he has to be confined to his room, to prevent his injuring either himself or some one else.

Died, in this township, on the 6th day of March, 1884, A. B. Mullins. Mr. Mullins was born in Hudson, Summit county, Ohio, on the 22d day of December, 1822. He came to Michigan in 1845, stayed about one year and then returned to Ohio, and in 1849 came back to Michigan and worked in Kalamazoo at the cooper's trade. In 1852 he settled on the place where the family now resides. He leaves a wife, two sons and a daughter who will deeply feel their loss. He was a kind husband, an indulgent parent, and one of our most exemplary citizens.

Prof. Russell informs us that the first year class in the English course of the High school was recently given a written examination in grammar, the questions used being those given the teachers at the county examination held at South Haven. The papers were submitted to A. C. Martin for marking, and, though none of the pupils had seen the questions or had any preparation, the result showed but two failures, while the majority of the markings were much above the required per cent. As a large number of the failures at South Haven was in grammar, this speaks well for the every-day work of our school.

Matrimonial Infelicity.
Mary Minor of Bangor asks the court to grant her a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony, because, as she alleges, her husband, Austin Minor, has treated her with extreme cruelty, calling her bad names, and striking and beating her. B. F. Heckert Esq., complainant's solicitor.

Edward Brotherton alleges that his wife, Mary Jane, has willfully and causelessly deserted his bed and board, notwithstanding the fact that he was always a kind and indulgent husband, and asks the court to release him from the unequal yoke. Crane & Breck are his solicitors.

Circuit Court.

Judge Mills was in town last Saturday.
The following legal business was disposed of at chambers. Kinney, Adams & Co. vs. Orrin Robinson; motion to dissolve injunction denied.

Geo. H. Rix vs. Elizabeth Strouts; application to restrain two foreclosures by advertisement. Preliminary injunction granted, on condition of bond being filed for costs, in case of failure to maintain suit. Order made permitting adjournment of sales.

Jerome Coleman vs. Geo. Lowry; Demurrer sustained with costs, and leave granted to file amended bill within 20 days.

In the matter of the appeal of Alice Moyer from an order of the Probate court, settling account of her guardian, Dorsey Fletcher.
Opinion filed awarding appellant between $1300 and $1500.

Examination of Teachers.

It may be of advantage to some of the teachers of Van Buren county, who read your paper, to be informed of the fact that the next examination will be held at Paw Paw on Friday, March 28th. While the board of examiners give two days to this examination, for the benefit of candidates for first and second grade certificates, all candidates must present themselves on Friday morning, the 28th inst. The school law specifies the date and, as the papers are the same in every county of the state, to avoid any suspicion of having seen the papers in any county, the candidates must comply with the law by enrolling themselves on the morning of the day which it specifies. Candidates for third grade must finish on Friday, but candidates for first and second grades will be allowed an extra day owing to the greater amount of work which they have to perform. To prevent confusion and for the benefit of many teachers, I trust you will give this insertion in your columns. A. E. ROSS, Sec'y Board of Exam'rs.

His Eightieth Birthday.

"O, what an ecstasy I was in.
At the first little shadow I caught with a pin." But naught to compare with the pleasure of twenty of us Paw Paw friends in accepting an invitation of the children of Deacon A. S. Downing of Almena, to surprise him and celebrate his 80th birthday, on the 8th inst. On arriving there we found 42 persons assembled, mostly matrons grave and gay, and gray-bearded youths, two of 80 years, one 80 in April next, one 73, three 69, several between 60 and 70 and more between 60 and 60.

Mrs. Downing was in great glee at the success of the surprise and all was merry as a marriage bell. On congratulating "Dea" Deacon on his surprise, "Yes," he said, "he has fooled me twice," but the twinkle in his eye indicated that this surprising, as surprises go, was a misnomer. Dinner at once, reminding us of the old couplet, "Kings and queens, love pork and beans," and "I know thee to be an oysterman gathering where thou hast not strewn, etc." There was a land of milk and honey that day, cakes, pies and things, coffee, tea and cold water, appreciated and enjoyed by all. After dinner, Elder Woodman in the chair, Deacon Downing made a speech, thanking all for their presence. Elder Brooks made one of his off-hand replies and closed with a prayer. D.
Woodman, a few words, and one other being called upon, dropped a word. The Deacon was presented with a china cup and a rock-ing chair, and I think I hear him declare, "I love the new arm chair." Sister Brooks saluted the Deacon with a kiss and the Elder, not to be outdone, jumped a chair and saluted Mrs. Downing.

"There were none from merrie England, none from York,
One from Oheigo, and many from New York."

Hartford.

Miss Clara Engle spent the Sabbath in Cassopolis, with the McGibeny family.

Miss Millie Earle was sick with chills and fever and unable to attend school last week.

Mrs. Willis Finkelney, nee Huntley, left this place Friday evening for her new home in Hart.

The oyster supper at the residence of Mr.
Cash, superintendent of the county house, was an enjoyable affair.

The Congregationalists will hold a letter social at the residence of C. H. Sherburne on this (Thursday) evening.

Will Cook, who broke his leg while attempting to mount a horse, a few weeks ago, is able to be about on crutches.

There was a donation at Reynolds' Opera hall, on Tuesday evening last, for the benefit of Rev. Wm. Woodmansee, pastor of the Congregational church.

A number of married folks, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dowd, made them a visit at their residence Saturday evening. They had a very pleasant time and were served with a nice supper by the hostess.

Among the literary exercises for young people's meeting, last Friday evening were two essays, one by Miss Lula Mills giving a brief history of the life of Milton, the poet, the other by Miss Ellen Walker, subject, John Bunyan. Both were creditable to the young ladies. The scripture reading was also very interesting. Interest in the meetings seems to increase.

Mrs. Watts breathed her last on Thursday March 6th. The funeral was held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, Rev.
Woodmansee officiating. Her remains were followed to the cemetery by her Sabbath school class and a large number of the members of the Rebekah Lodge, besides relatives and friends. All who knew her mourn for her. Both church and society feel that by her death they have suffered the loss of a friend and co-worker. Of her it can be truly said "She has written her name in kindness, love and mercy, upon the hearts of all those with whom she came in contact." The
